

Politeness.

No better evidence of good breeding, of the true gentleman can be given, than that civility, courtesy and complaisance, which, in refined society or among those who prefer and esteem each other in honor, is always practised.

All are entitled to a worthy consideration; but Old Age and ladies especially should receive from us our most gallant acknowledgements of deference, and he is to be pitied who forgets or neglects his duty in such a particular.

The conventional rules of society mark out the manner of our going among men, but we should not need an order of exercises to govern us in our relations with our fellow-beings. If rightly impelled we shall be found ever excelling in all that adds to a polished and commendable bearing one toward another.

We should be prompt in awarding every little token of politeness. The giving of the inside of the walk, the removing of hindrances to passing pedestrians—respectful demeanor, though small efforts, are nevertheless impressive assurances of refinement of mind and nobleness of heart.

No man ever periled his reputation or dishonored his name by extending due courtesy in his minglings in the world; on the other hand a perfect gentleman is the truest type of greatness.—New Era.

Hon. Pierre Soule has opened a law office in the city of Mexico. So much for his possession of the French and Spanish languages. While our young professional men are now generally idle, they cannot do better than exercise themselves over Ollendorf in acquisition of the Continental languages. The French is the great world's conversation language. Very soon the German and Spanish will be absolutely necessary to every lawyer in the Southern States—the former especially. If not absolutely necessary here, they are both valuable capital for the professional man who shall seek his fortunes in contiguous lands.

Burglars are busy in Charleston, robbing shops, houses and wagons. Yet the general tone of the press in that city is encouraging. A fine trade is anticipated this winter, and when this is the case, public morals may well be permitted to take care of themselves.

The New York Post coolly admits that, now that the negro has been made a freedman, the probability is that he will undergo the fate of the red man. It needs no ghost of Hamlet to confirm this anticipation.

A NEW LINE OF STEAMERS—The Herald's Charleston correspondent says a company has been formed in that city, and a large amount subscribed by Northern and Southern capitalists for the establishment of another direct line of fast steamers between New York and Charleston.

SOUTH CAROLINA RAILROAD COMPANY,
CHARLESTON, July 26, 1865.

Messrs. Wm. M. Shannon, T. L. Boykin, J. L. Villipigne, et al, Stockholders S. C. R. R. Co.

GENTLEMEN: I am directed by the President of the Company to acknowledge the receipt of your "Memorials," respecting the removal of the rails from the Branch Road to Camden, and to state that the same will be laid before the Board of Directors at their next meeting.

I am likewise directed to hand you a copy of the Resolution relative to the subject, adopted by the Board at their last meeting on the 3d inst., in Columbia, which please find herewith enclosed.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,
Very respectfully your obedient servant,
J. R. EMERY,
Secretary.

Resolved, That without any design to abandon the Camden Branch, the measures taken by the President for the removal of the rails therefrom for the speedier restoration of the track on the Columbia Road be approved—and that as soon as possible thereafter the Camden Branch be rebuilt; and for that purpose the old rail for which its rails are to be substituted be reserved—provided the President be authorized to purchase rails, if it can be accomplished, with a view to avoid the removal of the whole as a part of the Camden Branch Rails.

Correct copy from Minutes of the Board's Meeting 3d of July, 1865, City of Columbia.
J. R. EMERY,
Secretary.

Government Claims and Application for Pardon.

THE SUBSCRIBER HAS MADE ARRANGEMENTS with one of the most able and influential legal firms in Washington city, for the prosecution of Government claims and applications for pardon.

All applications for pardon under the Amnesty Proclamation must first be lodged with the Provisional Governor, and from thence forwarded to Washington city for final action by the President. The intervention of an attorney, both of this place and Washington city, will greatly facilitate the transaction and completion of such business.

Headq's Department for the South,

HILTON HEAD, S. C., MAY 15, 1865.
GENERAL ORDER NO. 63.

THE PROCLAMATION OF A. G. MAGRATH, styling himself Governor, of South Carolina, dated at Headquarters, Columbia, South Carolina, May 2, 1865, declaring that all subsistence stores and the property of the Confederate States within the limits of the State should be turned over and accounted for by the Agents of the State, appointed for that purpose, and directing that the subsistence and other stores shall be used for the relief of the people of the State; and the proclamation of Joseph E. Brown styling himself Governor of Georgia, dated at the capital of that State, on the 3d day of May, 1865, requiring the officers and members of the General Assembly to meet in extraordinary session at the Capitol, in Milledgeville, on Monday, the 22d day of May, 1865; and the proclamation of A. L. Allison, styling himself Acting Governor of Florida, dated at Tallahassee, on the 8th day of April, 1865, giving notice and direction that an election will be held on Wednesday, the 7th day of June, 1865 for Governor of the State of Florida; are, each and all of them declared null and void; it having become known to me, from trustworthy information, that the aforesaid A. G. Magrath, Joseph E. Brown and A. K. Allison, are disloyal to the United States having committed sundry and divers acts of treason against the same, in adhering to their enemies, giving them any aid or comfort.

The persons and peoples, to whom the proclamations hereinabove referred to have been respectively addressed, are therefore enjoined and commanded to give no heed whatever thereto, or to any orders, proclamations, commissions or commands, emanating from persons claiming the right to exercise the functions and authority of Governor in either of the States of South Carolina, Georgia or Florida, unless the same shall have been promulgated by the advice or consent of the United States authorities.

II. The policy and wishes of the General Government toward the people of these States, and the method which should be pursued by them in resuming or assuming the exercise of their political rights, will doubtless be made known at an early day.

It is deemed sufficient, meanwhile, to announce that the people of the black race are free citizens of the United States, that it is the fixed intention of a wise and beneficent Government to protect them in the enjoyment of their freedom and the fruits of their industry, and that it is the manifest and binding duty of all citizens, whites as well as blacks, to make such arrangements among themselves, for compensated labor, as shall be mutually advantageous to all parties. Neither idleness nor vagrancy will be tolerated, and the Government will not extend pecuniary aid to any persons, whether white or black, who are unwilling to help themselves.

III. District and Post Commanders throughout this Department will at once cause this order to be circulated, far and wide, by postal carriers or otherwise, and will take such steps to secure enforcement as may by them be deemed necessary.

Q. A. GILMORE,
June 16 Major General Commanding.
